

Aoyama Gakuin University

List of approved courses

Aoyama Gakuin University

All courses are subject to availability and also to change.

Compulsory

Japanese Language

Japanology

Optional

Courses taught in English:

Intercultural Literacy

Management Accounting

Global Environmental Politics

International Organizations

International Management I/II

 particularly recommended to International Students

International Institutions

Gender communications

Comparative Politics

Course taught in Japanese with English textbooks :

Developmental Economy

You must register for the two compulsory modules and at least one optional course, and take exams in all courses.

To pass the semester you must pass Japanese language and at least one other course.

Last updated 2010